THE LONG AND WINDING ROAD

The long and winding road that leads to the door
Will never disappear, we've seen that road before,
It always leads us here,
Leads us to the door.

The wild and windy night that the rain washed away
Has left a pool of tears crying for the day,
Let us know the way.

Many times we've been alone and many times we've cried,
Anyway they'll never know the many ways we've tried.

But still we remember the long and winding road . . .

*John F. McClay
215 Summit Rd.
Abington, Ma 02351*

IN DEDICATION AND MEMORY OF PATRICIA HOOKE

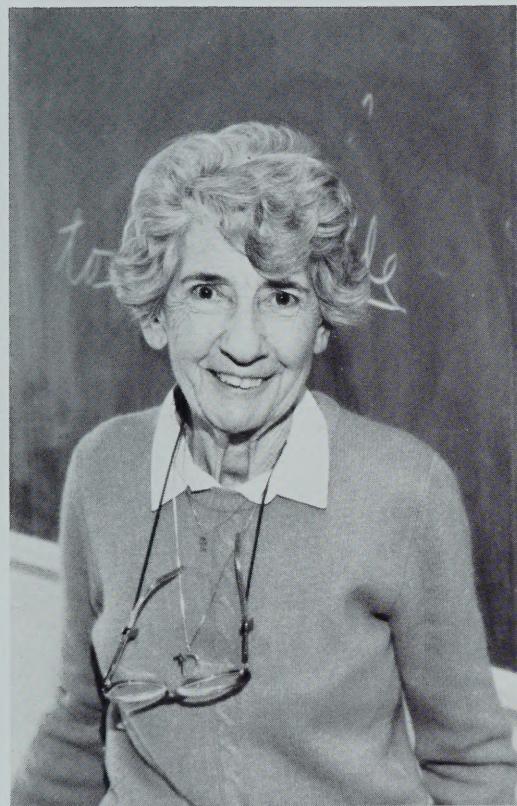

Your smile can still be seen,
And your caring way can be felt
By all who knew you and
By everyone you touched.

The tragic loss we've learned to live with.
We pray there'll be no more,
For friends are treasures,
Precious in our troubled times.

You are in our thoughts
As we graduate and move on.
We dedicate this book to you.
To the memory of a friend.

We miss you, Patty.

IN APPRECIATION . . .

Mrs. Rea Rosen

Mrs. Rosen has been a dedicated and respected member of the Abington High School faculty for the past 30 years. During this time she has been both a classroom teacher and a department head as well as an active advisor of le Cercle Français, a position she has held for the past 28 years. She was also responsible for establishing a scholarship, in 1968, which is given by this group every year at graduation.

Thousands of students have appreciated her genuine concern for their progress and have recognized the excellent foundation they received in her classroom.

She has often said that the day on which she ceases to teach will be the day on which she ceases to learn. The students will miss this enthusiasm and her valuable talent for combining instruction with amusement.

FROM THE EDITORS

All the roads we've traveled, all our laughter and tears, all our triumphs and failures of these last four years cannot possibly be condensed into these few pages. As editors, we have tried our very best to make this book a personal treasure to look back on with pride. We hope that after all the cliques have broken up and all the grudges have been forgotten that you will open this book and remember it all with happiness.

Although we have encountered numerous "setbacks," we always found our staff and Mrs. Donovan to be standing right behind us. What more can we say to them except, "Thanks."

We wish you all health and happiness and may all your future dreams come true.

Kim, Denise, and Ken

FRESHMAN YEAR

Freshman year - it seems so long ago. We left the junior high thinking we were "big shots" but soon realized that we must once again accept the role of underclassmen.

During this year of adjustment, we elected John Wolfe, Maureen Donovan, Karyn Bates, and Michelle Gallagher to lead us through it. Our class advisor, Mrs. DeLuca, helped us order our class jackets. The excitement we felt when they arrived was obvious, as all you could see for two weeks was green!

Our first rally was undecorated, but that was never to happen again. We quickly organized a committee so that everyone knew we had spirit.

The spirit became evident when we celebrated Hat Day, Punk Rock Day, Masquerade Day, and Toga Day. The outlandish outfits we created didn't win many prizes, but we had a lot of fun!

We cheered on the Hockey Team as they became the S.S.L. Champs. As "Bleacher Creatures," we cheered on the Boys' Basketball to the head of the S.S.L. and the Girls' Basketball to the State Championship at Boston Garden and Assumption College.

In the spring, the band travelled to Toronto and won the title of "International Parade Champions." They visited the C.N. Tower, Niagara Falls, and various other sites where they left their mark.

It was during this year that we suffered the tragic loss of a classmate, Patty Hooke. This had a profound effect on the entire class. She will be remembered just as we shall always remember everything that happened to us as a group and as individuals when we occupied the first floor corridor.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Our last year as underclassmen included many changes. Proposition 2½ increased some of our classes as high as 45 students. A fire in the office provided us with a scratchy intercom system and a quickly assembled main office in Room 211.

We elected class officers Heidi Bates, Paul Russell, Mary Manning, and Kathy Burke, who arranged with our advisor, Mr. Corcoran, for the annual sophomore M&M fundraiser.

The highlights in sports sophomore year were the Football team capturing the S.S.L. Title, the Boys' Basketball team qualifying for its second straight State Tournament, and Girls' Basketball once again winning the S.S.L. Championship and qualifying for the tournament for the seventh straight year.

The band travelled to Washington, D.C. as the New England Parade Champions. The 180 members were dubbed as "the rainbow that fell out of the sky" as they marched through the rain toward a first place trophy.

Perhaps our sophomore year can best be remembered for being the year we received our class rings. We admired each others and flaunted them to anyone who would take notice.

Sophomore year ended and we all realized that finally we would occupy the third floor.

HISTORY

JUNIOR YEAR

We made it! Third floor at last! It was to be an important year for everyone.

We elected David Fopiano, Barry O'Driscoll, Maura Reilly, and Sandy Stone as our class officers. They worked very hard for us and organized the first computer match up, which made many romances bloom and added needed dollars to our treasury.

As the year progressed, we began to think of higher education and talked to various representatives about colleges and our future.

The winter will be remembered for the days without heat, as we sat in class with coats and gloves wondering when spring would come.

The Girls' Basketball team once again claimed the title of S.S.L. Champions and brought great pride to the school.

The Ecology Club traveled to the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee in February. All who participated agreed it was a memorable experience.

In late April the band went to the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia for a major band competition. They came away with numerous trophies and a feeling of pride for a job well done.

Finally, prom time had come. Girls hurried from dress shops to hairdressers, and the class officers tried hard to plan a prom that would be special. The Lantana in Randolph was chosen, and on May 27 we tried to dance the night away on a dance floor crowded with parents. We picked Maria Backlund as our Queen, and when it was over, we knew it was truly a night to remember forever. This marked the close of our Junior year, and in September we would come back one last time as Seniors!.

SENIOR YEAR

"The" year had finally come. It was filled with important decisions, diligent studying, dances, and parties.

Mrs. Short and Mrs. Rennie were once again our class advisors. Along with our officers John Wolfe, Barry O'Driscoll, Maura Reilly, and Kim Kelley, they planned fundraisers to help defray the cost of graduation festivities.

Upon our arrival in September, we discovered that the main office had finally been restored. The first sweltering week of school, we enviously walked by it as the air conditioners comforted those fortunate enough to be inside.

Sonja Dencker from West Germany joined our class and became actively involved in various school activities.

As we filled out our college applications and watched the mail every day with our fingers crossed, we were kept busy attending many memorable events. The Thanksgiving football game was an unforgettable one. With the score Abington 28, Whitman-Hanson 13, we really showed what the Green Wave was made of.

In November, the Ecology Club and Student Council brought real donkeys into the gym for a fun-filled "Donkey Ball" Game.

In December, the class was saddened by the untimely death of classmate, John Kelly. This made us realize that we should cherish each moment as it comes along.

As the year progressed, the yearbook staff hurried to meet deadlines and make last minute "adjustments." The entire class excitedly signed their senior pictures and exchanged them with friends. It was all passing so quickly.

Graduation plans were finalized. Class Night was scheduled for May 29, the Senior Reception would be held at Christo's II on May 30, and graduation ceremonies on June 2. The thought was unbelievable! The long and winding road was about to end . . . or was it? We were all individuals and each had his own plans, but the road was not ending, it was just branching off in many directions. We shared a multitude of memories together and the parting would be sad. But in our hearts there was a bond which would forever hold us, the Class of 1984, unified always.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Soon we will receive our diplomas and our high school days will be coming to an end.

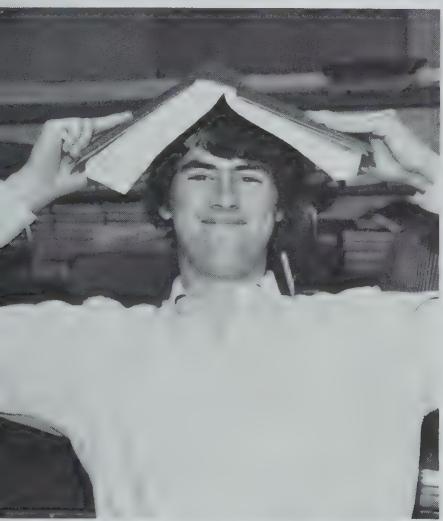

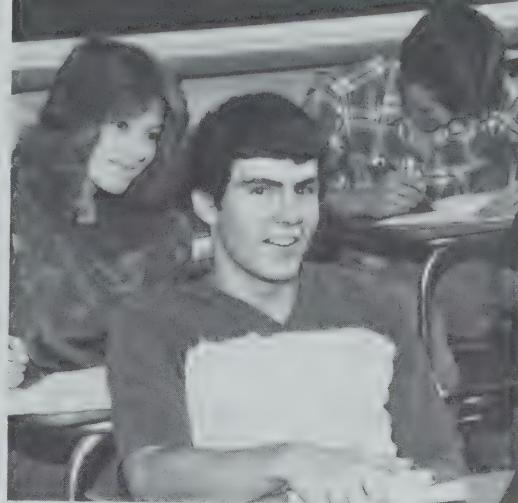

Remember when we came to A.H.S. as freshmen? We soon learned that with maturity came new responsibilities and obligations. Little did we know how many good times we would have and how many trying times we would endure. Remember those people who enlightened us and inspired us to develop our individual talents. Remember also some of the bad Monday mornings, first period gym, SATs. All these experiences will remind us of A.H.S.

Are we ready to leave? Will everything work out? It's up to us. Will we do it? Somehow I know we will.

Our class has come to be close in the past four years, and if the saying is true that with unity comes strength, then we'll have no problem. We've got what it takes.

Respectfully yours,
John Wolfe

CLASS WILL

We, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Four, being of sound mind and bodies, do hereby declare that this is our Last Will and Testament, and bequeath to the underclassmen and faculty of Abington High School all our worldly possessions and most cherished memories of our unforgettable years at Abington High, and do declare all other endowments set forth in our names to be null and void.

1. We leave Michelle Kraulitis a warehouse of lip gloss.
2. We leave Mr. Byron finally catching up with us for not signing in.
3. Eileen leaves Mr. Stone the "Crab of the Year" award at Hull.
4. We leave Alyssa and Ann traveling cross country on Alyssa's moped.
5. We leave the drill team the best A.H.S. ever had — finally!
6. We leave Mr. Minihane climbing all over the furniture.
7. We leave Jennifer Wallstrom a library.
8. We leave Jim Borden walking like he's "Mr. T."
9. Tracy leaves Priscilla, Bridget, Rob, and George her very best wishes for their future happiness.
10. We leave Rob Libby ten free driving lessons.
11. We leave Lynne and Monique always bumming cigarettes.
12. We leave Chris, Alyssa, and Leanne finally home before their curfew.
13. We leave Lynne Levine singing "Esa mesa thing she does is wagic, wagic, wagic!"
14. We leave Kathy Burke the Golden Glove Award.
15. We leave Karen Hailstone saying "Oh my God, I can't believe it, you look so nice!"
16. We leave Scott Shockley gas money for all the gas the cheerleaders used up.
17. We leave remembering Larry Mackin's phone number as "1690."
18. We leave the majority of the people in the top ten percent of the class taking standard and basic courses.
19. We leave Kim Kelley a year's supply of Band-Aids.
20. We leave many thanks to Mr. Donut and Tony Scampoli.

The 1983 Abington Green Wave football team finished a 4-6 regular season with a hard-fought victory over the Whitman-Hanson Panthers on Thanksgiving Day. Anchoring the line of scrimmage for the Wave were seniors Joe Frazier, Shawn Perkins, Jim Borden, Ken Bradbury, Tom Ritchie, and Dan Greenough. Ed Driscoll, John Maloney, Dicky Doherty, Alec Coulstring, Dave Majenski, Dave Fopiano, and Tim Murphy performed well throughout the year as backs and ends.

The team started the season on a losing note, dropping games to Rockland and Norwell but rebounded with solid victories over Hanover and Cohasset. After winning only one game in the second half of the season, they returned to Memorial Field for the annual donnybrook with the Panthers. Led by Tri-Captains Alec Coulstring, Ken Bradbury, and Tom Ritchie, the Wave scored first and fought hard for three quarters to insure a 28-13 win. It was Abington's first victory on Thanksgiving Day since 1979.

Honored by the South Shore League for their playing ability and season performance were All-Stars John Maloney, Ed Driscoll, and Joe Frazier.

CHEERLEADERS

Front Row (L-R): J. Anderson, M. Trenholm, L. Kemp, K. Hailstone. Middle Row: N. Marrocco, C. Allegro, C. Deveney Back Row: M. Gallagher, D. Burke, K. Towle, K. Burke, K. O'Lone

FIELD HOCKEY

Front Row (L-R) - C. Brown, B. Giannini, S. Peterson, C. Norton, E. Giannini, T. Drew, D. Asiaf, D. Driscoll.
Back Row (L-R) - Manager K. Burgess, I. Kenigs, D. D'Amato, L. Burke, K. Graham, K. Roy, M. Murphy, Coach MacDonald.

The 1983 roster of the Girls' Field Hockey Team included 11 past letter recipients - 4 seniors and 7 juniors. Led by Co-Capt. Eileen Giannini and Christine Norton, injuries and some tough breaks took their toll on the team.

The offense was led by Sally Peterson, while Christine Norton, Tracy Drew, and Eileen Giannini held the defense together.

Despite a difficult season overall, senior Eileen Giannini and sophomore Liz Burke were chosen to represent Abington on the South Shore League All-Star Team.

GIRLS' SOCCER

South Shore League Girls' Soccer is growing steadily more competitive with each passing season. This past year the Green Wave performed well against its very tough competition. The 1983 Green Wave was one of the strongest and best-balanced Abington Girls' Soccer teams to date, finishing the season with a record of 7-6-3. Although this was basically a younger team, leadership was provided by our four seniors — halfback Co-Captains Cecilia Bombardier and Lynne Tucker, fullback Betsy Curran, and halfback Debbie Rogers.

BOYS' SOCCER

The Boys' Soccer Team ended the 1983 season on a positive note — a score against Duxbury, a win over Middleboro, and a 5-10-3 record. Its solid defense and challenging offense was a threat to any team in the league. Testimony to this fact was found in the selection of Tri-Captains. Dan Campbell, Barry O'Driscoll, and Kevin Cashman to the South Shore League All-Star Team along with junior John MacLellan.

This year's team relied mainly on the experience of seniors. Defensively, Dan Campbell, Tim Tracey, Frank Blake, Dave Gridley, and Jay Walsh. Offensively, Barry O'Driscoll, Kevin Cashman, Dave Hunt, Ken Norling, Paul Russell, and Rick Little. The underclassmen were John MacLellan, Dan Lindahl, Scott Gomes, John Jacobbe, and Dan Dubois. Goalie Jason Farrington left many an opposing striker in awe of his saves.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Green Wave Harriers strike again. In a year when the League Champions were supposed to be rebuilding, they won it again! This year was the small school division championship — but a championship nonetheless.

Led by Capt. John Wolfe and senior Rob Campbell, the Wave compiled a 7-4 overall record and a 7-0 record in the small school division. After last year's 8-0 season and a previous 5-2 season, the Boys' Cross Country team has built a successful 20-6 three-season record under Coach Porter.

Juniors John Burns, Chris Cutter, Darren Eichorn and next year's Co-Captains Jeff Driscoll and Kevin O'Neil formed the nucleus of another strong team. Underclassmen Mark Holbrook, Gene Sims, Rich Campbell, and Chris Miller added much-needed depth.

Seniors Lisa Cullum and Sonja Dencker were the only girls to run for the team.

The team finished sixth out of thirty-eight schools in the Division IV meet held at Franklin Park, Boston — the best finish ever!

HOCKEY

The 1983-84 hockey season was a rebuilding year. The team returned only five lettermen. Capts. Senior Peter Lambert and Junior Kevin O'Neil provided great leadership for the younger players. Best of luck to out-going seniors Peter Lambert, Dave Fopiano, Ken Marini, and Jim Cashman.

Coaches Bill McMann and Bob Gore are very optimistic for the future.

BAND

The Class of 1984 joined the A.H.S. Band as freshmen in the fall of 1980. Not knowing what to expect, we began long hours of practice under the direction of Mr. Paul K. Smith and Drum Major Diane Walls.

Our first major performance was Boston's Jubilee 350 Parade. The sun beat down on our heavy uniforms as we watched our friends "drop like flies" from heat exhaustion. This did little to boost our confidence.

Things seemed to get better as we perfected our field show, and at the annual M.I.C.A. Competition at Lowell we received a "superior" rating for our performance.

The Band Jamboree gave us the chance to perform without the pressures of judges and inspections. The pride surged through our bodies as we snapped to attention for our home crowd and gave one of our best performances of the year.

Our hopes of reaching the Cotton Bowl were dashed due to lack of funds. Instead we opted for Toronto, Canada. From the Drum Line Competition to the Parade Competition, where we became the International Champions, the trip was a victorious one. The enthusiastic welcome we received on our return to Abington will never be forgotten.

Sophomore year there were two new faces leading us — Michelle Duguay and Shawn Reilly. Proposition 2½ now made it impossible to attend away football games, so the spirit we had in the stands at home games was doubly increased.

The high points of the fall season were the Music Bowl at the University of Massachusetts Alumni Stadium in Amherst and the New England Marching and Parade Competition at the Quincy Christmas Parade, where we won a nine-foot trophy and the title of 1981 New England Marching Band Champions. During the winter months, we performed at the State House on the National Day of Thanksgiving for the safe return of the Iranian hostages.

In April, we left for Washington, D.C. to compete in the National trophy and many memories of the nation's capital.

Junior year began with Michelle alone on the podium. We were introduced to Bob Cavanaugh, who initiated the process of changing our style as we entered into the NESBA circuit. There were new competitions, new judging criteria, and new fields to play on. We took many people by surprise with our success in this new scene and ended the field show season with a glorious victory at the Scituate Competition.

We proved our skill as parade marchers had not changed when we again took the title of New England Marching Band Champions for 1982.

The five-day, four-night trip to the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester, Virginia, was plagued with mishaps and delays, but we still won six trophies.

Finally, we were the seniors in the band. Michelle had two new assistants, Kenny Coburn and Eric North. Mr. Cavanaugh was back with new drills, many of which were more difficult than any the Abington High Band had ever performed. It took the dedication of the entire music staff to see that the moves were executed as written.

We would especially like to thank Bev and Kim Drury for the many hours they have worked with the Flag and Rifle Squads and to Miss Kathy DiPasqua for the extra time she spent practicing with the Drill Team. As a result of their support and dedication, the Color Guard had its most successful year to date, and we wish them luck for continued progress in the future.

The biggest achievement of the season was retaining the New England Marching Band Champion title.

Plans are under way for a trip to Orlando, Florida, in April. This will be our biggest trip yet and one which we are looking forward to eagerly.

We have been through a lot together and much gratitude goes to the Band Parents for all that they have made possible for us. The band has touched each of our lives with both tears and smiles, and we shall all miss being a part of it.

We would be "remiss" if we did not thank Mr. Smith for his patience and understanding when we thought we could not march another minute. We will always remember him and the thrill of hearing, "And now on the field . . . the Abington High School Marching Champions!".

BOYS'

The 83-84 Green Wave Varsity was led by Senior Co-Captains Ed Driscoll and Kevin Cashman, both outstanding perimeter shooters and defensive players. Inside was Joe Sebastyn, who as a Junior led the team in scoring and rebounding. A South Shore League All-Star, he was the second leading scorer in the league.

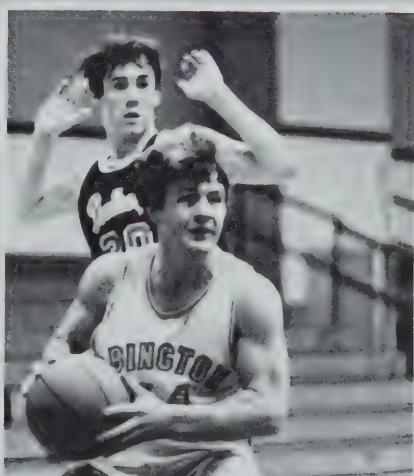

The team really came together in the middle of the season when they won five straight, turning a rebuilding year into a second-place finish in the Small School Division of the S.S.L., and qualifying for the State Tourney for the third time in the last four years. The season far outdid our early expectations, and it was an exceptional year all around.

BASKETBALL

GIRLS'

The defending South Shore League Champions opened the season with Mr. Gerry Walls making his debut as head varsity coach.

Led by the league's leading scorer, Senior Cecilia Bombardier, the Green Wave girls battled their way to third place in the league. The highlight of the season came with an upset victory over Duxbury, 59-50.

Seniors Sally Peterson,
Maureen Donovan, and Eileen
Giannini contributed to a challenging season.

BASKETBALL

BOYS' TRACK

After a highly competitive 1983 season, the boys' track team should emerge as a strong contender in the spring of '84.

Leading a group of dedicated underclassmen will be seniors Ken Bradbury, Bob Campbell, Joe Frazier, Barry O'Driscoll and John Wolfe.

With continued improvement and pride in their accomplishments, this is a Green Wave team that won't be taken lightly by any opponent.

GIRLS' TRACK

Although the spring of '83 didn't bring many team victories for our girls, many of our personal goals were accomplished during the season.

Fortunately, most of our girls are returning, and with some added depth from the underclassmen, our girls should be on course for a successful season.

BASEBALL

The Abington High baseball team ended on a strong note with Mike Murphy being named to the South Shore League All Stars. Along with Mike, Rob Libby, John Maloney, and Shawn Perkins were named Captains for the 1984 season.

Although the season was not a winning one, Abington was still a threat to any team. With infielders Mike Murphy, Tim Murphy, Frank Blake, and Alec Coulstring; outfielders John Maloney, Norman DeCoste, and Larry Mackin; and Rob Libby behind the plate, Abington was still classified as a top contender.

Front Row (L-R) - K. Burgess, M. Reilly, C. Bombardier, S. Murphy, E. Giannini, and L. Cullum. Second Row - Coach Stone, B. Rockett, S. Perakslis, A. Grant, K. Murphy, S. Stagliola, and J. Greene. (Not pictured: N. Morrison and B. Giannini.)

The 1983 Green Wave softball team improved upon last year's record finishing 8-12. Inspired by Co-Captains Eileen Giannini and Cecilia Bombardier, the steady play of Kate Murphy and Maura Reilly, timely hitting of Lisa Cullum, and tight pitching of Kathy Burgess made the Green Wave a tough team to beat.

With the return of these players plus a strong contingent of underclassmen, the 1984 season looks promising.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The tennis team was led by junior Sally Peterson and senior Karen Murray. Other returning veterans were Mickey McClay and Pia Spaziani.

Although not a record success, the team showed great promise for the '84 season with strong performances turned in by sophomore Donna Whiting, junior Ravena Sharma, and freshmen Lisa Iacovelli, Susan MacDonald, Jeanine Kowalski, and Kristine Donahoe.

BOYS' TENNIS

Front Row (L-R) - C. Deilmann, R. DeCoste, M. Reilly, J. MacLeod. Second Row (L-R) - Coach Mayhew, T. Gridley, D. Murray, C. Uva, J. Cashman, D. Gridley, J. Jacobbe, J. D'Antonio, D. Payne

The 1983 Boys' Tennis Team was one of the most successful. We were very competitive in all our matches and finished with an 8-10 overall record.

The team was led by No. 1 singles player and Captain, Mark Reilly. No. 2 singles much of the year was freshman Tom Gridley. Future outstanding player and No. 3 singles was John Jacobbe. Our doubles team featured several combinations such as senior Russ DeCoste and sophomore Derek Payne. Our second doubles team included freshmen Joe D'Antonio, Dennis Murray, John Cashman, and senior Clem Deilmann, a German exchange student.

With all the young players our team had, we should remain very strong for the next several seasons.

GOLF
